Wedding Ceremony Music

Music for Civil Ceremonies can be chosen from varying styles of music – tradition, contemporary and classical. The only restriction is that you are not permitted to use any music of a religious nature. (Music not suitable is shown with an asterisk, however always check with your registrar).

If you are having a church service we think it is important that the music you choose is respectful and appropriate. A chat with your priest, vicar or minister should give you an idea of what would be most suitable.
